

Words of praise for

grace will lead me home

Albert Cheng is a survivor of the brutal war and Khmer Rouge regime. His life is full of traumatic experiences. This book miraculously demonstrates the power of God that changes Albert's traumatized life into a living sacrifice to serve God by bringing hope to others.

~The Rev. Thysan Sam, Survivor of the Cambodian Killings Fields and Pastor, Eliot Presbyterian Church, Lowell, MA

This is an amazing and compelling story! I'll never forget hearing Albert share his experiences on my radio program, Renewal. I'm delighted his story is in print!

~Dr. Gene A. Getz, Host and Teacher, Renewal Radio

Grace Will Lead Me Home is riveting testimony of the transforming love of God. Albert Cheng's story will inspire all who feel they have been taken captive by forces beyond their control.

~The Rev. Bruce Reyes-Chow, Moderator of 218th General Assembly, Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.)

When I met Albert Cheng in 2007 in Texas, he expressed profound appreciation for my music and the blessing it had been in his life. Now, I am the one who is blessed by his powerful testimony in Grace Will Lead Me Home.

~Robin Mark, Worship Leader, Songwriter, Author
Belfast, Northern Ireland

This is the story of life that came close to being destroyed; yet nothing could be destroyed beyond God's capacity to restore. This is the story of God's amazing grace and of the power of forgiveness to heal, not only an individual but whole communities. This story will help you to recognize God's amazing grace in your life that God might lead you home.

~The Rev. Dr. Laura Mendenhall, Senior Philanthropy Advisor, Texas Presbyterian Foundation
Past President, Columbia Theological Seminary

It is such a joy and a blessing to know Albert as a friend and brother in Christ. This incredible story is a moving and deeply personal witness to God's grace and the transforming power of God's Word. Grace Will Lead Me Home is a book not only of hope but of the power of God's Spirit that is available to all. It is a gripping and dynamic true story that gives all the glory to God. You will cringe, laugh, and rejoice as you read it. I recommend it to everyone.

~John Hall Brown Jr., Architect, Church Leader, Marriage Mentor

I was deeply moved by Albert Cheng's gripping story and challenged anew to 'go into all the world' with the Good News of Jesus Christ. Who could have foreseen the fruit that would come from Christians showing an English language film about an ancient Jewish rabbi to a Cambodian Buddhist in a refugee camp in Thailand? This is the transforming power of the Gospel!

~The Rev. Dr. Shun Chi Wang, Office of Asian Congregational Support, Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.)
